Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Isaiah 11:1-4

Katie Cronin

But a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom.

The spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him: a spirit of wisdom and of understanding, a spirit of counsel and of strength, a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the Lord, and his delight shall be the fear of the Lord.

Not by appearance shall he judge, nor by hearsay shall he decide, but he shall judge the poor with justice, and decide fairly for the land's afflicted.

He shall strike the ruthless with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall slay the wicked.

Responsorial

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:4-13

Jett Collura

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit;

to another mighty deeds; to another prophecy; to another discernment of spirits; to another varieties of tongues; to another interpretation of tongues.

But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

One Body, Many Parts.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ.

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

John 15:18-21, 26-27

Dcn. John Barone

If the world hates you, realize that it hated me first.

If you belonged to the world, the world would love its own; but because you do not belong to the world, and I have chosen you out of the world, the world hates you.

Remember the word I spoke to you, 'No slave is greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours.

And they will do all these things to you on account of my name because they do not know the one who sent me.

"When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me.

And you also testify because you have been with me from the beginning

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Dona Nobis Pacem

Refrain: Dona Nobis Pacem

Give us peace, God, peace for all, like a river running freely.

God of nearness, God of life, you are with us; we rejoice.

Set us free, God, from mindless ways; guide us in our pursuing good.

You renew us with great love; God among us: this our joy!

Be our breath, God, deep and pur; feed our hunger for your truth.

Maranatha: come to us with your healing gift of peace.

Go make a difference

Refrain

Go make a difference. We can make a difference.

Go make a difference in the world.

Go make a difference. We can make a difference.

Go make a difference in the world.

We are the salt of the earth, called to let the people see the love of God in you and me.

We are the light of the world, not to be hidden but be seen.

Go make a difference in the world.

*We are the hands of Christ reaching out to those in need,
the face of God for all to see.*

We are the spirit of hope; we are the voice of peace.

Go make a difference in the world.

So let your love shine on, let it shine for all to see.

Go make a difference in the world.

And the spirit of Christ will be with us as we go.

Go make a difference in the world.
